(つづき) 彼の中に一体何があったのだろう か。1つは決意があった。そして日毎にその 決意を実践したということがあった。決意は してもそれを続けられないのが人間の常だ。 しかし、日毎にその決意の原点に立ち返れば 少なくともその日はやれる。この繰り返しが 必要ではないだろうか。根底に「求める」気 持ちがあってはじめて成立する業だと思う。 人間の中にある基本的欲求の一つ「知識欲」 を刺激すれば、決して「つまらなかったり、 退屈だったり、自分とは関係なかったり…」 はなくなるでしょう。4月入学する前の決意 を思い出してほしい。進級し、新学年が始ま ったときの決意を思い出してほしい。あれか ら3か月。自分の内を再度点検する時だ。毎 日全ての生徒に共通しているのは1日の大半 を過ごす授業なのだから。

3 年生黒田すみれさん 1年間ハンガリーへ留学。 Sumire Kuroda, 3rd year student will go to

to keep her health, to study hard and to enjoy sincerely. See her again one year later.

What on earth did he have in him? First he had a determined mind. And he performed the decision day by day. Most of us make a decision, but we can't continue it easily. However we can perform the thing to do at least, if we return to the origin of our decision. Isn't it necessary to make such a kind of repetition? I think it is a work that established for the first time, when we have a feeling "ask" in our mind. If you stimulate the basic desire, "Desire for knowledge", the idea that the lesson is boring and has no relation to yourself has gone away. Recall the determination before entering this school in April. I want you to remember the determination of the time when the new school year began. 3 months after that. It's time to check yourself again. What is common to all students is 'a lesson' to spend most of the day.
